

Draft Program

Monday, May 30, 2016

08:00 Registration & Networking

09:00 Official opening

UN or PNUD representant (tbc)

Stéphane Bertrand, executive director, International Summit of Co-operative

Ibrahima N'Dour, general secretary, Panafrican Cooperative Conference

10:00 Coffee-Break

10:30 Overview of health situation and health system in Africa

Health of Africans: the challenges in the face of SDG

Primary health care in Africa

NTI in Africa, a potential improvement for health delivery

Health Promotion, a potential action field for health co-op? Bernard Kadassia, president, Alliance for Health Promotion (tbc)

12:30 Lunch

14:00 The contribution of co-op and mutual in health

Global mapping of the provision of care through cooperatives: Preliminary findings, ILO(tbc)

How co-op and mutual could improve universal health coverage in Africa, Jean-Pierre Girard, International Expert, Co-op and NPO

The current situation of health co-op and health mutual in Africa, Willy Tadjudje, PhD Private law, associated researcher of CRIDES of Université catholique de Louvain

16:00 Coffee-Break

16:30 Feed-back 1: Parallel workshop: Opportunities and constraint for Africa co-op and mutual

Tuesday, May 31st
-------------------------------------

9:00 Summary of the workshop and day planning

9:30 Fruitful example of North-South co-operation

A second life for medical equipment: The Collaboration santé International (Canada) example in the support of 2 health co-op in South America, Pierrette de Foy, executive director (tbc)

The support of Health Partner (USA) for the implement of health co-op in Uganda (tbc)

10:30 Coffee-Break

11:00 The African health co-op and health mutual reality: Parallel workshop

Co-operative clinic in Benin, Dr. François Degbello

The experience of co-op pharmacy

The Rwanda tremendous development of Mutuelle Santé

CIC insurance (Kenya) Health insurance at affordable price (tbc)

Bamenda Ecclesiastical Provincial Health Assistance (Cameroun) Nestor Ngube or AtohmbomYuh George

12:30 Lunch

14:00 Feed-back 2: Parallel workshop: Opportunities and constraint for Africa health co-op and mutual: the next step

15:30 Plenary and closing remarks

